

Township of Edwardsburgh Cardinal (Significant Weather Event Criteria Form)

Date: December 28, 2025

1. Did Environment Canada issue a weather hazard under their public weather alerting program. YES or NO
If yes, list the weather hazard: Orange Warning - Freezing Rain
Forecasted Start of Storm: December 28, 2025 around 7pm

2. Does the weather hazard pose a significant danger to the users of the road: YES or NO:
Forecasted Accumulation: 15-20mm Total, Duration: 18 hrs

3. Do we have adequate municipal staffing to respond to the weather hazard: YES or NO. If no, explain: (ex. employee illness)
At this time

4. Do we have adequate resources to respond to the weather hazard: YES or NO
If no, explain: (ex. vehicle breakdown)
Full fleet of equipment not in-service. Truck 8 is out of service

5. Is the road system capable of handling the weather hazard: YES or NO
If no, explain: (ex. Roadside ditches at full capacity); Accumulation amounts will make it difficult to maintain roads to the standard and visibility will make it difficult for staff to see the roads

If you answered Yes to Question 1 and 2 and answered No to either Question 3, 4 or 5.
Declare a significant weather event.

Significant Weather Event Declaration Issued

Date: December 28, 2025      Notification Method: Social Media & Website
Time: 12:00pm      Authorized By: David S Grant
David S Grant, Director of Operations

Significant Weather Event Declaration Ended

Date: December 30, 2025      Notification Method: Social Media & Website
Time: 8:00 am      Authorized By: David S Grant